2007 Good Teaching Conference Presenters

The Good Teaching Conference Planning Committee is seeking potential presenters at the 2007 Good Teaching Conferences. The first conference will be held at the Hyatt Regency San Francisco Airport in Burlingame on January 19-21, 2007 and the second at the Hyatt Regency Irvine on March 9-11, 2007.

If you know of someone who would be a stimulating presenter on any issue related to good classroom teaching and who would be interested in presenting a workshop at the Good Teaching Conferences, please ask them to complete the attached Presenter Application Form. Duplicate the application if you know more than one person who you feel should be considered as a potential trainer.

There is no compensation for presenting a workshop at the Good Teaching Conference, although travel, conference meals and necessary lodging expenses are provided. Session times are one and one-fourth hours or two and one-half hours long, and may be repeated at different times.

Please direct any questions to Sergio Quintor in the CTA Instruction and Professional Development Department at 650.552.5180.

Do not delay in passing this information on.

The deadline for submitting Presenter Applications is Friday, May 31, 2006.

2007 CTA Good Teaching Conferences

Presenter Application

Thank you for your interest in presenting at CTA's Good Teaching Conferences. We are looking for stimulating presenters to provide workshops that support good teaching and learning. When your application is received, the Good Teaching Conference Planning Committee will review your application.

Although there is no monetary compensation for presenting a workshop at the Good Teaching Conference, it is an opportunity to share your knowledge and network with colleagues. Travel and necessary lodging expenses are reimbursed and meals provided at the conference are also included.

The GTC Planning Committee will meet in June to review the applications. You will be notified by mail no later than October 31, 2006 if your presentation is accepted.
