

Coming November 3rd-5th 2006...

Student California Teachers Association's Annual

FALL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Starring

Keynote speaker Reg Weaver—the National Education Association President, the new Student California Teachers Association Executive Board, and YOU!

Opening in the beautiful San Francisco Bay Area at the Sheraton Gateway Hotel Transportation, Hotel Lodging (double occupancy), and Meals are FREE to the first 6 SCTA members from each campus (conference registration fee is still required)

- Those who attend the premiere event of the season will gain an advantage over other students preparing to become teachers
- workshops on preparing for tests like CBEST, getting your credential, getting your first teaching position, surviving your first year of teaching, and much more!
 - opportunities to meet with students on all different levels of their pre-professional career
 - meet your executive board to express your concerns and make them count
 - ask current professionals the worst and best parts about teaching in a teacher's panel

Special VIP for Chapter Presidents or Leaders: Reserve your seats ASAP and get one extra day of training and excitement—workshops specifically created to prep you to become a great leader in your local and a night on the town. Each campus may choose two designees to arrive by 4 p.m. on Friday, November 3rd (preferably those who are or will be in leadership positions)*

First 25 people to register will be entered in a drawing to win a prize!
The chapter that has the largest attendance will win a prize
The person that brings the most people will also win a prize
(must be non-chapter status)

Register by October 5th for only $20! Campus leaders are $25. After Oct. 5th, registration is still only $30. Contact a SCTA executive board member for more details at: <http://www.cta.org/SCTA/WhoWeAre/ExecutiveBoard.htm>
